What we stand for?

A vision to share

We believe that the future of an inclusive and sustainable society is built at the heart of today's organizations and families.

To support this evolution, we are committed to enable positive work-life blending for families and businesses in Switzerland.

We therefore partner with companies and communities who care for the well-being of their employees while fostering diversity and talent development.

Our values

A mission to serve

Familizy provides concrete and personalised solutions that make your daily life easier: places in daycare centers, childcare during school holidays, nanny recruitment, tutoring and education, assistance for elder parents, support for family caregivers, life coaching, housekeeping services, family office...and much more.

We inform, advise, assist and find the optimal solution for each family, bringing peace of mind at each step of their life journey.

Familizy consulting services

- ✓ Life Coaching: depending on the situation you are facing we offer you a one-off consultation or a tailored coaching program with one of our specialized coaches. You define the framework, schedule, and methods directly with your coach in complete confidentiality.
- ✓ Legal advice: depending on the subject matter, Familizy's consultants responds to your requests for information and connect you with one of our local partners (lawyer, attorney, mediator, etc.).
- ✓ Financial advice: managing a family budget is not always easy, we find the best advice and the right tools for you.
- ✓ Family Office
When employing a domestic worker, you must comply with the rules and regulations of domestic work and fulfil all the legal, financial and social formalities. Familizy has set up an annual membership formula to fully relieve you from all these administrative obligations. We act on your behalf as a trustee with all official agencies and keep you informed about new obligations.
